

Trent Postell

Keynote Speaker • Executive Leader • Entrepreneur

Build people. Leave a legacy.

Trent helps leaders move beyond position and performance to the people, standards and systems they leave behind. His message combines practical executive experience with conviction, responsibility and a long-term view of leadership.

Nearly two decades of executive experience	$750M+ in mortgage volume managed	Four-time Gator100 Award winner

A LEADERSHIP MESSAGE SHAPED BY BUILDING.

As founder of Leading Legacy and Impact Legacy Group, Trent brings nearly two decades of executive leadership across finance, franchising and education. Before entrepreneurship, he managed more than $750 million in mortgage volume at Merrill Lynch and Foundation Financial Group. His operating perspective spans early childhood education, restaurant franchising and business development.

A University of Florida alumnus and former student athlete, Trent is a four-time Gator100 Award winner. His work centers on purposeful leadership, people development and building organizations that remain strong beyond any one leader.
